Foreword

We, the members of the 1969 Susquehannock staff, present to you, the students and faculty of Columbia High School, our yearbook.

For the seventh graders, this was an exciting year, a year in which they would conquer the world. The eighth graders discovered the satisfaction of no longer being the littlest ones in the school, and the ninth graders considered themselves "Kings of the Junior High." The tenth graders found senior high school quite thrilling, while the juniors discovered that they had only one year left, a year in which they must uncover their hidden dreams. For the seniors, this has been a memorable year, a year of happiness and of tearful sadness, a year never to be forgotten.

May this yearbook serve as a remembrance of all the joys and sorrows we have shared this year, and may it keep those memories close to the hearts of you, the readers.

Alma Mater

Come let us sing together
Once more our ringing song;
Sing for the Columbia High School
With voices true and strong,
For we are her loving daughters,
And we are her sons so bold
Hurrah for the Columbia High School
Hurrah for the Crimson and Gold

Soon from this dear old High School
Out to the world we go;
There to reap the harvest
Of what we here shall sow,
But we, her loving daughters,
And we, her sons so bold,
Will be true to the Columbia High School,
Yes, true to the Crimson and Gold

We proudly dedicate the 1969 SUSQUEHANNOCK
to Mr. John Gowarty.

By his firm teaching and valuable advice to students, Mr. John Gowarty has won the respect of the class of 1969. We admire him for his straight-forward sincerity and pleasant, thoughtful nature.

It is with great pleasure therefore, that the class of 1969 dedicates the SUSQUEHANNOCK to Mr. John Gowarty.

Superintendent

Members of the Class of 1969:

Congratulations to you upon completing your public school's course of study. It seems to me that there is a definite value in persevering to the very end of any undertaking you select. Finishing the course, job, or project always ennoble one by the very fact you accomplished what you set out to do. I trust you will now set new goals and new horizons for yourselves and then put forth the energy and time that will be necessary to reach them.

May I say one word about the present scene as we view it locally, nationally, and internationally. It seems to me that there is a particular tendency toward rapid change in all of our areas of life. Recognizing that change is a basic law of life, it seems to me that the one who advocates change must always remember that he has the responsibility for suggesting something better than the institution, custom, or practice which he seeks to change. In short, the responsibility to replace something better than what formerly existed should always be kept in mind when we are thinking of change. Change for the sake of change does not necessarily mean progress.

Please remember that this school stands ready, at all times, to continue to serve you in any way that it possibly can.

Sincerely,

Harry W. Smoker
Superintendent of Schools

MR. ELMER W. KREISER

When Columbus left Spain, he had no intention of discovering America. He was seeking a shorter route to India and, believing that he was in India, he called people living in the new land "Indians." Because of this discovery, and because of what the people did with the land that was discovered, we have a country now in which the average citizen has comforts, advantages and opportunities of which the world had never dreamed.

Columbus was also seeking a better way to go places. Any man who is trying to find a better way to go places finds opportunities. Such a man was working with the imprinting of sound waves on wax when it occurred to him that if he ran the needle back over the wax it would reproduce sound. The world was startled with the announcement that a "talking machine" had been invented. The inventor's name was Thomas Edison.

The best way to go places is to embark and persist, get started and work at it, always keeping your eyes open for new discoveries. Use your own judgment; use your best judgment. Apply the principle of individual responsibility — personal planning — solving your own problems and helping others solve theirs.

There's something needed in this world that won't be done unless you do it. Use initiative and find it. Use purpose and achieve it.

Congratulations and good luck to each of you.

Elmer W. Kreiser

Seated (left to right) — Mrs. Isabel Russell, Mrs. Hilda Spiese. Standing — Mr. Edward G. Peters, Mr. Cyril A. Greenya, Mr. Joseph W. Weigel, Mr. Walter Keiper, Mr. Donald H. Nickolaus, Mr. Philip R. Haberstroh.

I extend to you the Class of 1969 sincere congratulations. You have received a diploma for a course of study which started twelve years ago. This diploma means very little if you take it home and hang it on the wall or bury it in a drawer. But if you, yourself, go out into the world and pursue a vocation and continue to seek knowledge then the diploma will act as an inspiration.

May all of you, the graduates, continue your education in one form or another. Our society more than ever before needs well-educated leaders.

May I leave this thought with you: Seek all the knowledge you can from our educated society — be a well-educated leader in any chosen vocation and you will be a happy person and so will all of the people who helped you.

Again congratulations,
Edward G. Peters
President of the Board of Education

A few teachers have enough belief and trust in their students to not only advise; but, sometimes, sit back and watch the students put their own judgment and ideas to work. Mrs. Joyce Heiserman and Mr. James Davis are two of these.

We, the class of 1969, want to thank these two special people for their support, work, and especially their faith in us.

Mr. James Davis

Farewell To Crimson Tide

Seventh grade — what a time
for us the class of '69,
The thoughts of books and education;
we looked ahead with trepidation

Knowing that for the next six years
this we'd endure with all our peers.

The time flew by in Junior High,
and now was time to say goodbye
To our past days with all our scheme;
It was soon time to develop a dream.

Through Senior High, the days were jolly,
Hard, sarcastic and melancholy.

Then the year of years came to be,
and now we're seniors filled with glee

Only eight more months we had to go;
the time flew by as we well know.

Our plans increased with speed,
we looked ahead with want and need.
College for some, business or trade.
Our plans were carefully made.

And now the day has arrived
for our farewell to the Crimson Tide.
The daisy, the song, the people we see,
will soon, to us, be a memory.

Commencement time and our last song,
we now depart these halls so long.
We say goodbye, a tear or two;
We say farewell to the Crimson Tide and you.

The History of the Class of 1969

by Barbara Rupp, Class Historian

September 4 was the first day of school and the beginning of the end for the class of '69. Two days later, September 6, we elected our class officers. Chosen to lead us were: Neil Oberholtzer, President, Patricia Markel, Vice-President, Patricia Kocher, Secretary; and Jane Berdiner, Treasurer. On September 13, the first pep rally of the year was held, marking the start of fall sports. At this rally a new idea was introduced to Columbia High School, the Spirit Stick. The Spirit Stick was to be presented many times through the year to the class showing the most spirit. September 14 marked the opening of football season and Columbia got off to a fine start as the Crimson Tide defeated Warwick 48 to 18. On September 16, the annual Mifflin Memorial Service was held at Mount Bethel Cemetery. As the Senior class watched and listened, Kristeen Ortmann recited the poem "A Portrait of My Mother" by Lloyd Mifflin.

The magazine campaign kickoff took place on September 20, and on September 27, the English Club presented an assembly featuring actor, critic, Joe Calloway. Homecoming was October 12 and during the halftime of the Columbia-Donnegal game Patricia Markel was crowned Homecoming Queen and Eileen Rhoads her Maid of Honor. Members of the court were Jeralyn Rettew, Margaret Haberstroh, and Mary Droege.

The first of the two annual movies "Guns of Navarone" was presented on October 25.

November 15 was the start of the school-wide candy sale and the end of the football season. The football team's final game, a win over Ephrata, brought the Tide's season mark to 8 wins, 1 loss, and 1 tie.

November 22-23 found the play "Get Smart" being presented by the senior high Dramatic Club. The senior class was also busy for on November 23, the class canvassed Columbia taking orders for towel calendars. The project helped to finance the Senior trip which was to take place later.

November 28 was the start of the Thanksgiving vacation and on December 6, a pep rally was held to introduce Winter Sports. December 20 was the start of Christmas Vacation and on December 28, the wrestling squad traveled to Dover to participate in the Dover Wrestling Tournament. Over that same weekend Columbia's basketball team captured second place in the Lancaster Exchange Tournament.

On January 10, the annual Youth Day in Government Elections were held. This year the two opposing parties were Soul and Luv. Although Luv won a majority of the offices Bob Warner, Soul's Candidate, was elected Mayor.

On January 18, Steve McCune represented Columbia at District Band.

On January 31, 21 seniors took part in the Human Relations Day held at Lancaster Catholic High School. The event was attended by seniors from all over the county for the purpose of reaching a better understanding between people and races.

County Chorus was held at Warwick on February 1. Seniors representing Columbia were Bob Gotwols, Paul Kress, and Jim Long.

On February 14, the basketball team ended the season with a win over Elizabethtown.

Robert Heaps represented Columbia at County Band held at Donegal High School on February 15.

District Chorus was held on February 20, 21, and 22 with Robert Gotwols and Jim Long representing our school.

On February 21, James Luddy was crowned senior high Sir Valentine.

On February 28 something new happened at C.H.S. The faculty presented a play "Paint the Town Pink" revealed the acting abilities of many of our teachers.

On March 14, seven seniors were inducted into the Senior High Honor Society.

On March 28 the final pep rally of the year was held to introduce spring sports. On March 28 and 29 the senior high dramatic club presented "The Mouse That Roared."

April 2 was the start of Easter Vacation and on April 17, 18, and 19 seniors Bob Gotwols and Jim Long represented C.H.S. in Regional Chorus.

April 25 was one of the highlights of our year as the seniors traveled to Washington, D.C. for our senior trip. The class toured the Department of Commerce, the Bureau of Printing and Engraving, the Smithsonian Institute, and took a ferry to Mount Vernon.

Another highlight of the year was May Day. On May 2 Eileen Rhoads was crowned May Queen and Debby Shelley her Maid of Honor. Members of the court were Terry Bachman, Peggy Haberstroh, Poppy Markel, Jerilyn Rettew, Mary Droege, and Patty Kocher.

The following day, May 3, the Honor Banquet was held honoring those students who achieved a 90 average or better.

On May 10 the Music Department presented their Spring Choral Concert.

On May 16, the seniors dedicated our yearbook to Mr. John Gowarty.

"Scheherazade" provided a night of splendor and Persian finery for those attending the Junior-Senior Prom on Saturday, May 17.

May 27, 28 were the final days of terror for 1969's seniors. Examinations!!

In his Baccalaureate sermon Reverend Gotwols inspired seniors to call up all their resources to "Move Out" and take our places in the world.

Kristeen Ottmann and Richard Gaus headed the class of '69 as Valedictorian and Salutatorian on that all-important night, June 5, Commencement 1969. Tears of joy mixed with those of parting as the seniors said good-bye to the hallowed halls which had echoed for six years with all our cries of pain, excitement, joy, sorrow, and finally triumph.

Mrs. Bicknell and Mrs. Steere have given the Dramatic Club the inspiration they needed to give their fine performances. Without their helpful guidance, the plays would never have been the successes they were.

This is a scene from "The Mouse That Roared," which was directed by Mrs. Steere and Mrs. Bicknell. Grant Shultz carefully handles Duane Peters and Missy Russell who are prisoners of war.

The Tri-Hi-Y is a service organization consisting of junior and senior girls. Each year the Tri-Hi-Y sponsors various projects. The collection of used clothing for "Bundle Day" was under the club's direction. It was a big success, when over 1000 pounds of clothing was collected. The annual Christmas boxes are handled by the Tri-Hi-Y. This year was the first time the club sponsored an orphan from overseas. Each month ten dollars is sent to Compassion for the care of the child. In order to support Jeannetta, the club held several bake sales. In March a Spring Fashion Show was presented which netted nearly $150, the proceeds of which went to Jeannetta.

SEMPER ACTIVITAS

"Maria"

This year we welcomed Maria Eugenia Rivera as our foreign exchange student. Maria, a native of Guatemala City, Guatemala, took the secretarial course and was an active member in the Spanish Club, the AFS Club, the English Club, Intramurals, and FBLA.

For the understanding she has shown us, the happiness she has brought, and the friendship she has given and received, the class of '69 wishes Maria fulfillment and success in all she undertakes.

Mifflin Service

Each September students from the senior class at CHS pay tribute to Lloyd Mifflin, a respected artist, poet, and sculptor from the Columbia area. The Mifflin Memorial Service is held at the poet's grave in the Mount Bethel Cemetery. Kristeen Ortmann, the senior with the highest average, recited the poet's "A Portrait of My Mother" and placed a rose on his grave

The 1969 Project Fair was a successful combined effort of the history, science, industrial arts, and home economics departments. Awards were given to science and history projects.

Refreshments were served to visitors in the home economics rooms while paper maché was demonstrated by art students. Science and history projects were on display in the cafeteria and lobby.

Sir Valentine

Patricia Markel, left, crowns Jim Leddy as Senior High Sir Valentine while Debbie Beck has the honor of crowning Kevin Lutz, Sir Valentine of the Junior High at the Sir Valentine Dance held at Columbia High School. Proceeds from the contest were donated to the Building fund of Columbia Hospital which amounted to $59.09.

Senior Senate

The Senior Senate was organized to help formulate class policy, make known any wishes of classmates, and discuss any other important business. Senate members include three seniors from each Senior homeroom. They are Grant Shultz, Barb Mathias, and Larry Ellis from #212. Tom Arndt, Kris Ortmann, and Phil Horn from #206. Linda Lutz, Don Sholl, and Helen Hickman from #208. Bob Gotwols, Gerry Stoutzenberger, and Judy Barch from #213

Washington, D.C. was visited by the members of the senior class on April 25. The group departed from Park School at 5:30 a.m. Upon arrival in Washington, the class visited the Department of Commerce, the Bureau of Printing and Engraving, the Smithsonian Institute. In the afternoon they traveled by boat down the Potomac to Mount Vernon, home of George Washington.

Queen of the May

Silver

A garden motif provided the setting for the crowning of Miss Eileen Rhoads as Queen of the May. The candidates proceeded down the white runway to the music of Pomp and Circumstance. Following the crowning, the court was entertained by a Gymnastic exhibition, Modern Dance presentation, and the May Pole dance. After the entertainment, the girls presented their flowers to their mothers and danced to the waltz, "While We're Young"

Anniversary

Being the Silver Anniversary, thirteen of the twenty-five former queens attended the Queen's Night festivities. The former queens were given special recognition during the ceremony.

Paul Kress and his date happily pose under the brilliantly decorated temple entrance

On the evening of the seventeenth of May, the Junior Class paid tribute to the departing seniors. The juniors carried out the theme "Scheherazade" through exotic decorations consisting of a temple entrance and temple windows at each table.

A mystic atmosphere surrounded the enjoyment of the evening. Following a Grand March, Miss Carol Miller, a senior, and Miss Cynthia Bowers, a junior, were chosen Queen and Princess of this year's prom.

Thank you juniors for a beautiful prom!

Farewell to you and the youth I have spent with you
It was but yesterday we met in a dream
You have sung to me in my loneliness, and I of your longings have built a tower in the sky
But now our sleep has fled and our dream is over, and it is no longer dawn.
The noontide is upon us and our half waking has turned to fuller day, and we must part
If in the twilight of memory we should meet once more, we shall speak again together and you shall sing to me a deeper song
And if our hands should meet in another dream we shall build another tower in the sky.

Commencement

After six years of blood, sweat, toil, and tears the Class of 1969 held its Commencement on June 5 at 8:15 in the high school auditorium. One-hundred and thirty strong, the class marched down the aisle to the processional, "Pomp and Circumstance". The invocation was given by Reverend G. Webster Gotwols. The Valedictorian was Kristeen Ortman while Richard Gaus had the honor of being Salutatorian. The main address was a panel discussion entitled "This Land is Mine"; it was given by the five Commencement speakers: Margaret Haberstroh, Paul Kress, Eric Lutz, Carol Miller, and Patricia Markel. Mr. Kreiser presented the awards and scholarships, and Mr. Smoker presented the diplomas.

Commencement

Commencement necessitated much practice but the final presentation was worth it.

Susquehannock Dedication

Next year's Susquehannock staff is backed by the present one.

Probably will be . . .

The yearbook dedication is the final assembly of the school year. This year the senior class dedicated their yearbook to Mr. John Gowarty. Senior members of the Press Club participated in the program and welcomed the new staff members.

Class advisors, Mr. Davis and Mrs. Heiserman, were presented with gifts from the senior class.

"Farewell to the Crimson Tide"

Mrs. Heiserman and Mr. Davis receive gifts from a representative of the senior class.
